Talk title: Extensions of algebras and their applications

Abstract: The talk consists of two parts. First we review extensions of Lie algebras and their applications. The second part of the talk is devoted to the applications of central extension technique to the classification problem of two classes of Loday algebras with non-trivial centers.