

CURRENT TRENDS IN IDENTITY BASED ENCRYPTION

By

Wan Ainun Mior Othman
University of Malaya

ABSTRACT

Identity based encryption (IBE) is a public key encryption technology that allows a user to calculate a public key from an arbitrary string. We present the basics of identity -based -cryptography and briefly survey its early history. We also discuss some techniques that have been used to create practical and secured IBE schemes, and, how we can efficiently implement IBE schemes.