Robert Hann
Sales VP, Digital Security, Global Centre of Excellence, Entrust

Robert has specialized in PKI, Identity Management and Trust Services for well over two decades and through this he brings a practical, innovative and commercially sound perspective to these areas. With broad business centered focus, he has helped organizations in all sectors to realize their objectives and cost effectively secure the services that many of us rely upon in our business and personal lives.